

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Sandra J. Rusch and Brenda Dockter, Appellants,

v.

Southeast Alaska Regional Health
Consortium and Alaska National Insurance Company,
Appellees.

Supreme Court No. S-18038

Opening Notice

Appellate Rules 201.1 & 204

Date of Notice: 4/8/21

AWCAC Appeal Nos. 17-001;17-002

AWCB Case Nos. 16-0131, 16-0132

AWCB Decision Nos. 201210128; 201403022

1. On 4/7/21, Appellant filed an appeal of the Alaska Worker's Compensation Appeals Commission's (AWCAC's) final order/judgment distributed on 3/8/21. Attorneys whose names and addresses are correct on this notice need not file an entry of appearance. All documents filed by a party who is not represented by counsel shall include an address at which that party can be served. The caption in this case will be as shown above.

2. In accordance with Appellate Rule 204(g), all parties to the AWCAC proceedings when the final order/judgment was entered are parties to the appeal. A party who files a notice of appeal, whether separately or jointly, is an Appellant under these rules. All other parties are deemed to be Appellees, regardless of their status before the AWCAC. An Appellee may elect at any time not to participate in the appeal by filing and serving a notice of non-participation.

3. The notice of completion of preparation of file is due from the AWCAC appeals clerk on or before 5/18/21. The record in this appeal will include only the documents and proceedings in the case referenced above. If either party believes that the record should contain documents or proceedings from any other related case, that party should file an appropriate motion.

This case may be subject to the requirements of Appellate Rule 221.

- ☐ On or before 5/10/21, the attorneys for all parties to this appeal must discuss settlement as required by Appellate Rule 221. The first attorney listed below is responsible for arranging the settlement discussion. Counsel
